

Reduce Plastic Bag Waste Action Ideas

Spread Awareness

• Organize to get plastic bags banned! Dress up as the plastic bag monster and drum up support in your local community by standing on the corner and drawing attention to the issue like these folks did in North Bend, Washington.

• Go to any local stores in which consumers normally bring their goods home in plastic bags and help remind them before they enter the store to retrieve their bags from their cars!

• Host a small concert and invite friends to share songs like these youth did in Beirut, Lebanon.

- Write a short opinion piece on why you think plastic bags should be banned in your community, and submit it to your favorite local blog and/or newspaper!
- Give a speech on why we need to reduce plastic bag waste, much like Sarah Higginbotham did in Oregon recently.

• Need ideas for a clever informational sign? Here you go!

Reuse Plastic Bags

• Break out your crochet hooks and turn your grocery bags into a shoulder tote like this one from lifehacker.com!

• Create a plastic bag mandala in your community. Invite people to weave their own bags into it, and encourage those friends to use reusable bags and pledge to reduce bag waste!

• Create a plastic bag animal that is important to your locality like those in Abu Dhabi did.

• Create plastic bag art, like Pascale Marthine Tayou! Post a picture on Facebook of your best plastic-bag-art. You never know, it could be worthy of making it to the Contemporary Art Museum in Rome, like his did!

- Host craft activities with your friends and fellow activists. These are great conversation starters!
